Jacobs resigns as superintendent

Canyon School Supt. Jerry Jacobs resigned his post Tuesday night.

He was hired Monday as superintendent of the Raymondville Independent School District.

School board members voted Tuesday to accept Jacobs' resignation effective in 30 days or when those projects connected with the sale of $3 million in bonds recently voted by CISD taxpayers are completed to the board's satisfaction.

Jacobs, a sometimes controversial school figure, has been superintendent here since 1967.

Board President Tom Keeling announced Jacobs' resignation at the close of a regular business meeting Tuesday night.

"I have a letter for Mr. Jacobs' resignation," he told other board members, "and I'm sure not happy to see it."

"We don't have to accept it, do we?" responded Keeling.

The board did vote, though, to accept the resignation with the proviso that Jacobs remain in Canyon for 30 days or until all matters relating to the sale of school bonds for which his participation would be necessary are completed. The board plans to seek a bond rating from New York City bond rating agencies later this month. The sale of bonds is set for late August.

"Canyon does have a doggone good school system," Jacobs told The News Tuesday afternoon. "The majority of the people do expect and want a good education. In any system that's good."

In reviewing the highlights of his nearly 10 years in Canyon, Jacobs said many changes have been effected in curriculum. In addition, a new junior high school has been constructed, a new vocational wing has been built for the high school and new vocational curriculum put into use, and the $3 million bond issue has been passed for construction of a new elementary school and additions to the high school.

Jacobs said, though, a great share of the credit for the quality of the Canyon school system must go to the staff and teachers and school board members.

"Nearly everything that happens — and a lot of outsiders don't understand this — originates with the teaching staff," he said.

"Our staff and teachers as a whole are second to none," he said. "One of the real joys has been sitting in a good spot to be able to hire the quality people we have that are dedicated to helping boys and girls.

During his years at Canyon, Jacobs has been center of controversy several times. Most recently, he became the personal target of opponents to passage of a school bond issue (See JACOBS, Page 5)

County tax up 25% ; school tax to rise 25% too

County commissioners voted a 25 per cent tax hike for Randall County residents Tuesday and Canyon School Board members are expected to follow suit next Tuesday.

The surprise county move came Tuesday afternoon in a special called meeting for commissioners to discuss the 1976-77 budget and possible reappraisal of all Randall County land.

School board members Tuesday night reviewed a nearly $4 million budget which they were told would require a tax hike of about 25 per cent to finance. Final action on the budget will come during another special meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday following a public hearing on the document.

County commissioners may wait two weeks before having a public hearing on their second $2 million budget, which includes a $243,000 appropriation to hire an outside firm to revalue all county property.

The effect of the county tax hike, which follows by one year a 30 per cent hike in taxes for county residents, will be to raise the taxes on a typical farm property by about $25 per year, according to Commissioner Dee Griffin, who recommended the increase.

The effect of the school board's anticipated action will be to hike

the tax on a home placed on the tax roll at $20,000 from $153 under last year's rate to $192 under the rate recommended Tuesday night.

County commissioners voted Monday to hike the tax ratio from 25 per cent to 30 per cent and to hike the special ad valorem tax from five cents per $100 of assessed value to 15 cents per $100. The tax formula which will be used in figuring taxes will be $1.05 per $100 on 30 per cent of assessed value.

School board members acted earlier this year to raise the percentage of valuation from 40 per cent to 80 per cent. If figures presented Tuesday night by Supt.

Jerry Jacobs and Business Manager Ronnie Wood are followed, the tax rate for the coming year will be $1.20 per $100 for application to 80 per cent of assessed value. Last year's tax formula was $1.92 on 40 per cent of assessed value.

School board members had anticipated an increase in taxes for the upcoming school year based on several factors which became evident during last year and the spring.

A legislative mandate that the local district pay more of the burden for providing schools, a mandate which cost taxpayers $140,000 more this year than last.

Hearing set Tuesday night

Board views $4 million budget

Canyon School Board members reviewed but took no action Tuesday night on a proposed $4 million budget, the highest in school district history and one which will require a 25 per cent tax increase.

A formal public hearing on the budget proposal, prepared hurriedly and early this year to expedite the sale of $3 million in bonds recently authorized by

Canyon voters, will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the school administration building.

At that time, board members will also accept the budget and set a tax rate for next year.

The rate is expected to be $1.20 per $100 of valuation on 80 per cent of value. The rate used last year was $1.92 per $100 on 40 per cent of value.

School Business Manager Ron-

nie Wood presented the budget proposal Tuesday night calling for a $3.68 million expenditure for operating fund accounts and $485,600 in expenditures for debt service.

The budget presented reflects an anticipated surplus of about $35,000, with income to total $3.7 million and $483,000 respectively.

The 1975-76 amended budget

had expenditures totalling $3.57 million in the operating accounts and $302,000 in the interest and sinking fund. Revenues in the current budget were to total $3.53 million in the operating fund and $329,000 in the interest and sinking fund.

The proposed budget calls for $1,335,600 in income from local tax sources, an increase over the current revenue budget of $1,094,600.

Other local revenue sources, including student fees which were ruled unconstitutional recently by the state attorney general, will be down substantially in the 1976-77 budget to $65,300. In the current year's budget, the local revenue sources provided $104,000 in income.

Petition circulated

Residents protest postal plans

More than 40 persons living along 5th Avenue west of the courthouse square signed petitions early this week opposing construction of a new post office at a site they believe has been chosen for the facility.

The petitions were mailed Wednesday to the U.S. postmaster general, Congressman Jack Hightower and Sens. John Tower and Lloyd Bentsen. One was also turned over to local Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland. Jim Palmer of 1208 5th Ave. started the petition drive over the weekend after talking with residents of the 1300 block of 5th Avenue who he said have been approached to sell their property to the government for the postal facility.

Palmer said he has learned the government intends to purchase the block between 4th Avenue and 5th Avenue and between 13th and 14th Streets for the post office.

Surveyors were seen on the block last week and small red flags have been placed around the block. Palmer said every resident of 5th Avenue to 11th Street signed the petition calling for the government not to build the postal facility at the anticipated location except two or three residents in the block to be directly effect. He said the petition represents both a protest of the location and a protest against the building of a new postal facility in Canyon during a time when the postal service is in an economic quagmire. "I don't sanction the idea that they're going to spend the money somewhere so they might as well spend it here," Palmer said.

The petition circulated and sent reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned property owners and/or residents on Fifth Avenue of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas do hereby protest the selection of Block 43, Canyon City of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas, for the site of the construction of

But plans not official

Even though residents of 5th Avenue feel they know where a new postal facility will be built, local Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland reiterated Tuesday he has not yet been told where the post office will be constructed.

"Not one word from the department" is the way Moreland characterized the information he's received on postal service construction plans. Moreland had predicted in early April, though, that

Reappraisal approved

County budget record

Randall County commissioners approved a record $2,367,654 budget Tuesday afternoon, necessitating the 25 to 30 per cent hike in taxes also voted by commissioners.

The budget, with expenditures proposed by Commissioners Dee Griffin and John Fulgenzi primarily, includes $243,000 to hire a reappraisal firm to revalue all property in the county during the next year.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey voted against the new tax rate but abstained from voting on the budget proposal.

The budget approved Tuesday is nearly $100,000 higher than a budget eyed recently which called for a $341,000 deficit.

The tax hike approved Tuesday erased the deficit.

Griffin told other commissioners he and Fulgenzi had spent seven hours Monday going over the budget requests of various county departments.

They presented expenditure proposals for each office and their figures were accepted by Commissioner Jim Fletcher in the final vote.

Without the $243,000 for a reappraisal, the expenditures for county office-holders will total $2.1 million.

Griffin said the tax hike and (See COUNTY, Page 5)

Dozens of Canyon youngsters scrambled for pennies in a penny-hunt sponsored Saturday afternoon by the Canyon bicentennial committee in Conner Park. First National Bank and West Texas State Bank provided pennies for the hunt.

July pool parties planned for youth

Two "pool parties" are planned during July by the Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee at Conner Park swimming pool. A double event, the first of the pool parties will be held July 16 from 7:30 until 10 p.m. for all Canyon High School students (including sophomores, juniors and seniors for the fall session). The party will include swimming and dancing with music being provided at pool side for the entertainment. A concession stand will be open during the evening and general admission will be $1 for the evening.

The second pool party for July will cater to Canyon Junior High School students (including those who will be seventh, eighth and ninth grade students this fall). The CJHS pool party will be held July 23 from 7:30 until 10 p.m. at the Conner Park Swimming Pool. Admissions will be $1 and music will be playing at pool side for entertainment and dancing. Concessions with soft drinks will also be available throughout the evening.

Following the two pool parties, the Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee will be meeting in a special discussion centering on the success of the summer projects for high school and junior high students. The group will also discuss possible entertainments for the fall catering to the CHS and CJHS students.

The committee's meeting has been set for 7:30 p.m. on Thursday evening, July 29, at the Canyon News offices with all committee members and other interested individuals encouraged to share their ideas.

The Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee was formed during early June to meet current needs of youth for entertainment facilities in the community.

Requiem mass Friday for John Batenhorst

Long-time Umbarger rancher and farmer, John Batenhorst, 86, died late Tuesday evening at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon. Mr. Batenhorst was born August 28, 1889 at West Point, Neb., and came to Umbarger in 1917 after selling his hardware store interests at Primrose, Neb. He entered the farming and ranching business in the Umbarger area until his retirement in 1962.

All-Stars 1-1 in tournament

Canyon's Babe Ruth All-Star team was to be on the mound at press time Wednesday in a game versus the Top of Texas (a team composed of upper Panhandle all-stars). The results of the game will determine whether the team plays again on Thursday during the Babe Ruth All-Star Tournament at Pampa.

The local all-star team is coached by Randy Whitson, Ray Eller and Raby Ratliff. Tuesday when the Canyon All-Stars met Eastern Panhandle the final score wound up 20-4 in favor of Canyon. Pitching for the game was Danny Roberts and according to the coaches "everybody was hitting."

Earlier in the tournament the Canyon All-Stars were downed by a 17-8 score on Monday when they met the Panhandle Oakes.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Umbarger, the Knights of Columbus and the Farm Bureau. On November 28, 1911 he was married to the former Mary Knust at Olean, Neb.

Prayer services for the family were held Wednesday evening at Schooler-Gordon Funeral Chapel in Canyon and open prayer services for the friends will be held this evening, July 8, at 8 p.m. in Schooler-Gordon Funeral Chapel, Canyon.

Requiem mass will be conducted at 10 a.m. on Friday at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Umbarger with Rev. James Sonderman, pastor, officiating. Interment will be at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery at Umbarger. Pallbearers will be his grandsons. Local arrangements are being handled by Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

Survivors include his wife, Mary of Umbarger; three sons, Raymond Batenhorst of Canyon, Sylvester Batenhorst and Leonard Batenhorst, both of Umbarger; five daughters, Mrs. Vincent Friemel and Mrs. Dennis Brandt, both of Umbarger, Mrs. E.N. Reinart of Hereford, Mrs. John Vorwald of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Mrs. Werner Henschel of Groove Springs, Mo.; one brother, Henry Batenhorst of Vega; 40 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren.

Industry surveys due scrutiny at meeting

Chamber of Commerce directors and industrial foundation directors are to meet in a special session at 7 p.m. tonight to go over proposals for conducting a review of possible industrial sites here.

Roland Black, manager of the chamber, said eight proposals from various area firms were received by the chamber to pursue a $5,000 study of industrial site possibilities around Canyon.

Tonight's meeting is to focus on a selection of three of the eight for personal interviews.

Black said all eight proposals were under the $5,000 ceiling which federal officials had told the chamber it might expect for funding.

The chamber has asked for a federal grant to fund the study of industrial sites.

Black said the formal grant request is ready to be sent to the Economic Development Administration as soon as the interviews are conducted.

The chamber will recommend a firm to accomplish the study, and the EDA will make the final selection.

The study will center on three site possibilities around Canyon and will determine the feasibility of industrial promotion here.

Employment is census survey topic

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the work week of July 19-24, Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Dallas, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 70,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in May the survey indicated that of the 94.6 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 87.7 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 7.3 percent, down from 7.5 percent in April and substantially below the recession peak of 8.9 percent reached in the second quarter of 1975.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Clog dance for TEXAS

A troupe of young dancers from Georgia will bring their authentic mountain clog dances to Texas July 12 for a performance at 7:45 p.m. on the patio area of "TEXAS."

Little General Cloggers and the General Cloggers ranging in age from four to fourteen, will dance the clog and combine it with square dancing and clogging routines.

The troupes, one for younger and one for older youngsters, were organized in 1972 in Kennesaw, Ga., the home of the famous Civil War locomotive, The General. The dancers are official ambassadors for the state of Georgia and are representatives of the Georgia Bicentennial Commission.

Canyon Days '76 festival parade floats were the highlight of Saturday afternoon along with a special VIP motorcade as Canyon's Citizen of the Year, Carmen Hernandez, and other dignitaries were recognized. In photo above the branding iron for best parade float was accepted by a representative for the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints as Ken Thompson of the Canyon Chamber made the presentation.

Best float awarded

The best float award at the Canyon Days '76 parade on Saturday went to the representatives of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The winning float group received an oversized branding iron for their project among the 60 or so parade entries. In the bike decorating division the winners were Chad Barnes, 7, first place; Shane Mudge, 6, second place; Danny Kershen, 10, third place; Brian Kershen, 9, fourth place; Adam Tunk, 11, and Herbie Griner, 11, tied for fifth place. Awards were based on best decorated and most unusual decorations in the division. An estimated 1,200 were served barbecue and trimmings at the park, according to a Chamber of Commerce spokesman, and it was estimated that about 3,500 persons were on hand to view the late evening fireworks display marking the 200th birthday of America.

Brooks studies dancing

Brenda Brooks has recently returned home from Dallas where she studied dancing with Nakita Talin of Southern Methodist University. She arrived home just in time to join her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brooks and John for a tour of southern California where they visited with Frank's mom, Laura Brooks in Glendora, Calif.

In Sherman Oaks, Brenda took some dance classes from Doug and Chea Rivera, teachers for some of the TV and movie stars. She was invited to join a jazz class of Jaime Rogers who is the choreographer for the Sonny and Cher Show and the Dr. Pepper Commercial in Studio City, Calif. The family also visited Disneyland and the Universal Studios before returning to Canyon.

Cooper hurls a no-hitter

Plainview fell to Canyon's Legion nine 8-2 as Ken Cooper hurled a no-hitter in Plainview. Matt Madewell had four RBI's and both Madewell and Hoss Ratliff had doubles.

Canyon is now 11-2 in season play, 6-2 in district play; the next Legion action was to be Saturday night against Borger in Canyon at 7:30.

also be down for the 1976-77 school year to $2.31 million from current revenue figures of $2.32 million.

Instruction will take the biggest bite of the proposed budget with an allocation of $2.3 million. Instructional administration will total $84,900. Library expenditures will be $96,700. Expenditures for principals is to total $177,500.

Total expenditure estimate for counselors is $108,500. Transportation is expected to cost $182,000 next year and co-curricular activities are allocated $77,600.

General administration is allocated $197,500 while maintenance shows an increase to $424,800.

Wood said he anticipates a 14 per cent increase in electricity bills next year and a 19 per cent increase in natural gas bills.

The budget includes allocations for several special projects for the upcoming year, including new typewriters and equipment for the junior high and high school, new furniture for Rex Reeves Elementary School, and a black-top area for Gene Howe Elementary School.

After brief discussion, Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board the staff would also try to include the funding for an additional counselor at the high school and other equipment in the budget.

In other business Tuesday night, the board took no action on two petitions for de-annexation from the Canyon district.

Amarillo Attorney Robert Templeton presented a revised petition to the board seeking de-annexation of a 360-acre tract of land just north of Estacado Estates in the South Amarillo area.

He had earlier this summer presented a similar petition.

He told the board $72,000 had been put into a special escrow account for transmission to the district upon completion of the de-annexation procedure.

The board took no action on the petition at the advice of Jacobs who quoted CISD Board expert Bob Davis, who he said advised against any action on a petition until after $3 million in bonds are sold in late August.

The board, for the same reason, delayed any action on a petition seeking de-annexation of a 640-acre tract known as Sleepy Hollow in South Amarillo.

The board did decide, though, to set a meeting as soon as possible with members of the Randall County Board of School Trustees to discuss the upcoming de-annexation petition efforts.

The board accepted the resignation of Alton Fields, who had been an assistant football coach at the high school. Fields will be head coach at Falls.

The resignation of Richard Bales, who had been junior high band director, was also accepted. Bales will go to Borger.

Taxes. . .

caused some of the increase. The loss of certain student fees, charged in the past to students for workbooks and laboratory equipment, cost the taxpayers another about $25,000.

In addition, the passage of a $3 million bond issue in May to finance construction of a new elementary school and remodeling and additions at Canyon High School cost the taxpayers an increase in payments on the district's bonded indebtedness of about 10 per cent.

Inflation also took its toll on the budget for the upcoming year, according to Wood.

Griffin told fellow county commissioners Tuesday afternoon the 25 per cent tax hike would provide funds enough to adequately finance county government for the next year, including the reappraisal effort.

Commissioners stressed the tax hike would be for a one-year period only, until the reappraisal is completed by an outside firm and the tax formula can be reassessed in view of new evaluations of property.

a new post office facility or any portion thereof, which effects our property and residences located on any portion of Fifth Avenue of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas.

"We are of the opinion that the location of such postal facility will inevitably create a depreciation in value of our property to an extensive degree. We are also of the opinion that it is inevitable, if such postal facility is located on any portion of Fifth Avenue . . . it will require that Fifth Avenue be widened to accommodate increase in traffic brought about by such construction of a postal facility.

"In the event a widening of Fifth Avenue comes about, such action will further decrease the value and intrinsic beauty of Fifth Avenue which has been cited as one of the most beautiful streets within the City of Canyon. . . .

"At this time during our Bicentennial Year, much has been recorded of the historical value and beauty of many of the homes located on Fifth Avenue. The widening of Fifth Avenue and the removal of valuable trees is an affront not only to the preservation of such local and American history, but also can create an apathetic view-point toward the preservation of our heritage among our present and forthcoming generations. . . .

Palmer also turned a copy of the petition over to City Manager Glen Metcalf for review by city commissioners at their next meeting.

Postal authorities have been seeking a site in Canyon for construction of a new facility since early April.

County. . .

larger budget are required due to growth in the county, particularly in South Amarillo.

But, all commissioners joined in a general statement of abhorrence for new taxes.

They hoped, though, a reappraisal by an outside firm would place property on the tax rolls at a true 100 per cent value allowing a tax decrease next year.

Griffin told commissioners they must face the reality that the county is operating in a metropolitan environment and will be called on increasingly in the future to participate in financing urban-oriented projects.

"It's a hard pill and none of us want to swallow it but it's there," Griffin said.

On the vote to increase taxes 10 cents on special ad valorem taxes and from 25 per cent to 30 per cent on ratio of assessment, Paul Lindsey voted no.

"I'm opposed to it, but this is our only salvation," Fletcher told Lindsey. "We can't continue our deficit budget."

Lindsey told fellow commissioners his negative vote was not against the principle of hiking taxes to meet the budget but a protest against including the $243,000 allocation for a reappraisal in the budget.

Lindsey had, in a meeting last week, termed outside reappraisals as "one of the biggest rip-offs" of the taxpayers in the state.

Other commissioners agreed an in-house reappraisal effort would not work. They noted that the possibility of hiring qualified appraisers to perform a reappraisal was virtually nil.

"I wouldn't have voted for it if it hadn't been a necessity," Griffin said.

Commissioners instructed Tax Assessor-Collector Mrs. Audrey Bruse to contact J. W. McMorris and Associates of Hereford, the low bidder for a reappraisal, for a meeting about the reappraisal. McMorris had bid $219,000 for the job.

Allocations established in the budget approved Tuesday for various offices and functions are as follows:

*Tax assessor-collector — $285,000 for next year; $263,600 for current year.

*County judge — $21,992 for next year; $24,041 for current year.

*District clerk — $57,727 for next year; $51,660 for current year.

*County clerk — $121,000 for next year; $86,984 for current year.

*J.P. 1 — $28,614 for next year; $23,874 for current year.

*J.P. 4 — $23,715 for next year; $20,526 for current year.

which initially totalled $6 million and called for construction of a new high school and elementary school.

Jacobs came to the Canyon district as superintendent in 1967 after spending five years as superintendent at Edna. Prior to that he was superintendent at LeFors for six years and superintendent at Channing four years.

During the early '50s, he was principal of the high school and coach at Texline for three years.

During the 1948-49 school year, he was a math teacher and assistant coach at Canyon High School.

A native of Spearman, Jacobs received his bachelor's and master's degrees from West Texas State University in 1948 and 1951 respectively.

He had served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

School board members went into executive session following the close of regular business Tuesday night to consider guidelines to follow in the selection and hiring of a replacement for Jacobs.

Dr. James Davis, head, WTSU Accounting Department; Norman Harrell, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. partner in charge of WTSU relations; and C. James Mans, also a PMM partner.

Firm gives to university

The Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. Foundation has presented $2,550 to the West Texas State University Accounting Department.

The donation is the result of a direct foundation gift, as well as the foundation's matching of employee contributions.

The funds will be used to create a computer room and purchase a terminal for use by accounting students. The room will be dedicated to WTSU alumni employed by the certified public accountant firm.

City clerk post filled here

Kevin P. Evans began work this week as administrative assistant to city manager Glen Metcalf.

Originally from Hereford, Evans has attended West Texas State University since 1973, majoring in public administration. He is due to graduate in December.

One of Evans' first projects, Metcalf said, will be to prepare the city's application for matching funds for park development.

finding a suitable site for location of a new post office here would be a problem.

Postal officials announced they were seeking a site in late March. They want nearly 60,000 square feet in the downtown area.

Several bids for sites were turned into postal officials in mid-April.

Surveyors have been seen at a possible site, termed the real site by protesters along 5th Avenue, which is bordered on the north by 4th Avenue, on the south by 5th Avenue, on the east by 14th Street and on the west by 13th Street.

Red flags now border the block, also.

Tilleez
PROCESS CATTLE MANURE

Great for this year's crop
... and the next and the next and the next.

Unlike raw manure, Tilleez nutrients are available for plant uptake for this year's crop. And, it builds the soil and moisture-retaining capacity for future crops.

Tilleez benefits your soil and gives it improved tilth. The bacterial mass developed in the Tilleez process makes use of the locked-up nutrients, already in your soil, by converting them to readily usable plant food.

And, with all of these advantages, you still get a good supply of nitrogen . . . usable nitrogen!

Tilleez is the result of a unique process of aerobic bacterial digestion that converts raw manure into a valuable soil conditioner and fertilizer. In the big million-dollar plant at Summerfield, aerobic microorganisms create the heat that kills weed seeds and changes the manure into a form that makes its natural nutrients readily available to plants.

Tilleez is a product of the BioCon Division of Searle Agriculture.

Folks back from vacations

BY JO FULKERSON
PAT REED is home from her trip to Boston, Mass. and points east. I am sorry to report that she was ill there and had to come home early because of that illness. She made it home after a few disappointing delays with the airlines, and has been feeling poorly since being at home for a few days.

Boston, and is now a radiologist technician. She worked at New England Memorial for her on-the-job training. That was in Stoneham, Mass.

Pat planned this visit as a surprise present for Sandra's graduation, and the family was so pleased. She said while she was there, the family took her to the dog races in Revere, Mass. and although she didn't get rich, they had lots of fun.

KIM AND MIKE Emerson are also home from their week

long visit to Vallecito Lake near Durango, Colo. In addition to it being wonderfully cool, the fish were really biting.

Mike caught a 36 inch pike. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cooper, Kim's mother and dad, met them there. She said they had a wonderful time.

WE WILL MISS Kenny Hughes, who has this week

moved to Kress to be nearer his work.

THE ROYCE McKEE family, and the V.M. McKee's from Lubbock, went to Greenbelt Lake recently for the day.

The outing was nice, but when the wind blew their tent down, they decided it was time to come on home.

Doris' mother, Mrs. Weaver, will be visiting with the McKee's for a while. By the way, Doris was sporting a beautiful bracelet watch on her wrist when she was in the office recently. It was a gift for extra ordinary work and sales of Sara Coventry Jewelry, for which Doris is a demonstrator. Isn't it true, Doris, the harder we work, the "luckier" we get?

HERE FOR A two week visit at Sandra and Mike Edmiston's house are nieces Julie and Dana Gibbs of Fort Worth. These girls are the daughters of Sandra's sister, Lois Gibbs.

WE SINCERELY REGRET the tragic death of Miss Sherry Cobb, a Siesta Park resident. She was drowned during a fishing trip to Greenbelt last weekend. We extend heartfelt sympathy to her roommate, Miss Kayleen Davis, and to Miss

Cobb's family.

THE OAKLEY CHILDREN, daughters of Gene and Diana Oakley, 257 La Fiesta, are away to Denver City to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jones, for two weeks. Goodness knows parents love their children, but Diana says she is sort of having a vacation too, while they are away.

THE OTHER DAY when the sun was shining brightly, the wind was calm, and the temperature was at its very best — in other words a perfect spring day — a young man about 5 years old came into the office and asked me why I was in the office working. I told him that I thought I ought to be here, and he told me in no uncertain terms that there were lots of "funner things to do."

Well, I thought about that expression when I learned that Sharon Shipley had to return to the hospital for another brief stay, and that Diane Hoffman was also going to have to go in. Sharon and Diane, there are funner things to do, but hope you both are feeling better soon. We are glad to report that Faye Risner is home and recuperating.

NEWCOMERS TO THE park included Max and Janice Turner, 127 Siesta Lane; Shawn Poland and Ken Perkins, 208 La Fiesta; Thomas and Julie Bowen at 252 La Fiesta; Mrs. Belinda

Leyba and family at 108 Siesta Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Rhodes, 109 Loma Linda; and Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Owens, 217 La Fiesta. Welcome.

REX AND ALYCE Holbert have recently been away to help celebrate a nephew's wedding.

RUBY HUDDLESTON SAYS the Golf Tournament at Sillsby was held June 17 through June 20, and was a huge success. She visited with Jack and Vera, Joe and Vickie, the Huddleston's at Lake Jackson, and had a ball.

The only thing that marred her visit there was the death of a long-time family pet, Lucky. She also visited with relatives in Baytown, namely the Caseys, Whights and the Huddlestons. They really went all out for her, she said, and she had to make herself leave. One of her nieces has a cabin at Lake Weatherford, and while there, the whole crowd were catching fish so fast, Ruby got so excited she almost fell off the pier. Fun, fun, fun.

Granddaughter, Jamie Huddleston came home with Ruby, for a three-week visit. Hope that they have a good time. We missed Ruby and are glad she's home safely.

CLARICE HEGLIN IS

celebrating a birthday July 1. Ruby Huddleston says she's not sure which birthday it is. She thinks Clarice is 39 and holding. Happy birthday.

I CALLED PEGGY Gore who told me she and Clarice in company with Earlene Williams (Peggy's sister), made a trip to California recently to visit with another sister, Mattie Carlson who lives in San Bernardino. Peggy's niece took them to Las Vegas, Nev., which was fun.

Clarice went on to Sacramento to visit with a granddaughter, Dianna Heglin. Sounded like their trip was fun. Peggy and Clarice are both live wires, so I know there was not a dull moment from start to finish.

KIRA BURGAN, DAUGHTER of Ira and Kathy Burgan, celebrated her ninth birthday recently and several friends attended a swimming party in her honor.

MR. AND MRS. Clyde Turner (known to family members as Papa and Crabby Grandma), old family friends from Tucson, Arizona, and their grandson, Marty Dains, surprised and pleased us the past weekend by visiting us on their way from Post, Texas (where Mr. Turner's mother lives) to parts of Oklahoma and other parts unknown.

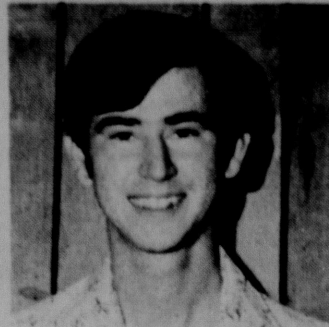

They will be touring about a month, stopping as it pleases them, and have no definite itinerary.

NEW SOLDIER, MARK McQueary, is now stationed in Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He writes his parents, Art and Jean, that he hasn't experienced any of the fun parts to service yet, but is optimistic.

JERRY AND ANNA Stiekrod report that their family, especially the kids, enjoy almost daily swims in the pool. They have the tans to prove it.

REMEMBER EVERYONE, I need your news. Call me at 355-0601, and try again if you don't catch me the first try. Have a happy tomorrow.

Andy Spencer began work recently as a soil conservationist at the County Soil Conservation Service office in Canyon. A native of Jacksboro, Spencer worked two years as a conservationist at Bonham.

Plans for early exams foiled by University officials

WTSU's first summer session, which began on a holiday, ended on another holiday, despite some grumbling from students and faculty.

Registration was held on Memorial Day and finals fell on July 5, the legal Monday Fourth of July holiday for state and federal employees and many other workers.

Last week, students tried to petition the university administration to re-schedule the final exams for July 2, the Friday before the holiday weekend.

The attempt failed and Ray A. Malzahn, vice president for academic affairs, explained why in a July 1 faculty bulletin.

Questions of all kinds have been asked about our summer calendar for 1976 — why did we register on May 31; why are finals scheduled for July 5? The facts of the matter are these: the Common Calendar adopted by the Coordinating Board mandated the beginning of the summer session no later than May 31, 1976. The Common Calendar regulations also state "each of the two summer terms shall include no less than 5 1/2 calendar weeks including registration, instruction, and final examinations." Conflicts with the public school teachers' schedules prevent us from starting sooner than May 31 or ending after August 13 — a span of 11 weeks. State law prohibits taking a day off on a Friday or Monday if a holiday falls on the adjacent Saturday or Sunday. University regulations based on accreditation standards require a final at the end of the term. Further, the faculty need some time to grade finals and turn in grades and the Registrar's Office needs some time to complete the term and prepare for the second.

All of these facts make it necessary that we start with Registration on May 31, end the 1st Term and begin the 2nd Term the week of July 4, have finals on July 5, and end the session by August 13.

We regret the inconvenience this summer schedule has caused students, faculty and staff alike, but we see no workable alternative.

— Ray A. Malzahn
Some professors planned to circumvent the Monday exam requirement by giving two-part exams with the major portion to be given Friday or by giving a "late mid-term" exam Friday and an insignificant final on Monday.

day. But most of these plans were squelched by a reminder, also by Malzahn, in the July 1 faculty bulletin.

"Please be reminded of the University policy, as stated on page 36 of the 1976-77 General Catalog, regarding final examinations: ... In no case will a final examination be given earlier than the time for which it has been officially scheduled. According to the University Calendar for Summer 1976, final examinations are scheduled for July 5."

While students and faculty busied themselves with exams Monday, university administration officials put in a day at the office. A telephone survey made by The News about 3:30 Monday afternoon found the deans of the colleges and top university administrators all on the job.

Registration for the second summer session began today.

Bride's colors used for event

Apricot and gold decorated the serving table to carry out the chosen color scheme of Miss Karen Leverett, bride-elect of Kent Hodges, at a miscellaneous bridal shower June 26 in the home of Mrs. Bernard Warren.

The morning shower was attended by approximately 30 friends of the couple as Mrs. William Deane presided at the guest register. An organdy and linen cloth covered the serving table with a centerpiece arrangement of apricot pixie carnations and baby's breath being used. Apricot tapers completed the serving table with a silver punch bowl and other silver appointments complementing the setting.

A fruit plate and miniature sweet rolls were served with Carla Gray attending to the punch service.

The couple is planning to marry at First Baptist Church of Canyon on July 17.

Co-hostesses assisting Mrs. Warren were Mrs. Crews Henry, Mrs. Michael Auls and Mrs. W.L. Powell of Amarillo.

Supper-dance set Saturday

A calf fry and dance is set for Saturday evening, July 10, at the ATO fraternity lodge on Hix Drive, east of the city.

The project is being sponsored by Canyon's Young Citizens with only advance tickets being sold to those a minimum of 18 years old. Tickets may be purchased through JD's Playhouse in Canyon or by calling 655-3891 or 655-3330.

Tickets are selling for a $6 donation toward the CYC scholarship account to benefit Canyon High School students planning to pursue their education at West Texas State University.

Calf fries will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m. and the dance will be following at 9 p.m.

Bond sales up

May sales of Series E and H United States Savings Bonds amounting to $18,661 in Randall county were reported today by County Bond Chairman Don Max Vars.

Sales for the five-month period totaled $99,641 for 40% of the 1976 sales goal of $250,000.

Sales in Texas during the month were $23,323,639 — while the year-to-date sales totaled $118,488,815 with 44% of the $272.4 million 1976 sales goal achieved.

THE MISS TEXAS Pageant in Fort Worth Saturday evening will include as contestants two locals with Miss Sheral Strecker, 1975-76 Miss West Texas State, in the competition.

Also competing will be Lisa Currie, granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Currie and great-granddaughter of Mrs. L.C. Ruthart (both of Canyon) as she participates as Miss Atlanta, Texas.

ONE OF THE most fabulous costumes of the Canyon Days '76 celebration was a simple pair of eyeglasses worn by Zoe Henry, former first grade teacher of Rex Reeves Elementary School now retired. The eyeglasses, according to Mrs. Henry, were worn for many years by her mother and have been fitted with the prescription of Mrs. Henry's own eye wear.

Mrs. Henry recalled that as a child she always remembered her mother having her housework done and being dressed for relaxation by the time the children were home from school — but one day her mother had not gotten any of her usual jobs done around the house — because she couldn't find her glasses (which were situated atop her head).

MOVIE TIME AT the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum in Canyon this Sunday afternoon will feature the award winning movie "The Howards of Virginia" with Cary Grant and Martha Scott co-starring in the rousing adaptation of Elizabeth Page's book "Tree of Liberty." The movie received two Academy Award nominations and is a 117 minute long presentation rated G.

Show time will be at 3 p.m. and the movie, like others of the summer series, will be shown free of charge in the second floor lecture room of the main museum building.

EIGHTH GRADER MICHELE Telfair flew this week to Memphis, Tenn. to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.P. King.

While she's there, they plan to drive to Nashville to Opry Land and then on to see the Oak Ridge nuclear facilities.

Although she has flown several times before, this is Michele's first trip alone.

Chism to give paper

Ocie Chism, West Texas State University assistant professor of business administration, will present a paper entitled "Price Cost Analysis and Negotiations" at a National Association of Purchasing Managers workshop in Austin later this week.

The district two workshop will involve several hundred participants from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Kansas.

"This paper deals with the use of negotiations to get better prices for industrial products," Chism says. "It is not just price haggling. It is an investigation of all aspects of the cost of a product, and then using that information to get a better price from the company."

Chism will present the paper in the professional development section of the workshop.

Mass, cake, supper mark celebration

By REBA RAEF
ST. MARY'S BICENTEN-NIAL celebration began with a 5.
p.m. Mass on July 4th in St.
Mary's Church. The Mass was celebrated by Father James Sonderman. Special music was provided by St. Mary's Youth choir and orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers.

As the United States and the church flags were brought to the altar, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung by the congregation.

At the covered dish supper held in the parish hall, Father James Sonderman, our new pastor, was welcomed and given a standing ovation.

A 4-tiered bicentennial cake,
decorated in red, white and blue, complete with 200 red, white and blue candles, was the center of attraction, as the congregation sang
"Happy Birthday, America."

The small children blew out the candles and the cake was cut and served by Mesdames Ed Wieck, Ray Gerber, John Grabber, A.H.
Lindemann, Vincent Ramae-kers, Lee Haschke and the Misses Gertrude Friemel and Joletta Adams.

After the cake was served, the orchestra and choir played and sang all the old time tunes, such as Red River Valley, Old Dan Tucker, featuring Angeline Has-chke on the violin, Boil Dem Cabbage Down and West Virginia,

featuring a duet with Marianne Wieck on the flute and Troy Skarke on the guitar, and many more, ending with America.

The C.C.D. classes built a flag on the wall as the story of the flag and what it stands for were narrated by Mrs. Jack Brandt. At the close of the narration, the Pledge of Allegiance was recited by the audience and all joined in and sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

A bubble blowing contest and a balloon bursting contest ended the days festivities. Renee Meyer and Denise Friemel won the bubble blowing contests and the door prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Wieck, of Canyon and Phillip Brandt, from Umbarger.

MR. AND MRS. George
Brockman and Mr. and Mrs.
John Wieck and family and Mr.
and Mrs. Elroy Artho and family attended a Fourth of July celebration held in the Harvey Artho home near Wildorado on July 4th.

The occasion also was the 30th reunion of 12 of Harvey's Marine buddies, who went through the war together. Also present were all of the brothers and sisters of Harvey and their families.

late Frank and Clara Grabber

over the Fourth of July weekend.

Minnesota and Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Arndt, Dorothy, Linda
and Steve, from Cullman, Alabama.

This was the first time in five years that the brothers and sisters have all been together.

TEX AND PAT Cumings had company over the Fourth. Their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Omey, from San Diego and Jim and Nancy Moore, from Hereford and the Cumings all went to Palo Duro Canyon for a picnic.

HEALTH TIPS FOR A GOOD VACATION

Many a vacation trip has been ruined because some simple advance precautions were overlooked. Here are a few tips that will help avoid possible problems.

1. If you wear glasses or contact lens, carry an extra pair or set.
2. If you take regular medication, be sure you have enough to last the entire trip.
3. Get vaccinations early so you can minimize the chance of suffering a reaction when you are away.
4. If you have allergies, check the climate you can expect to encounter.
5. Try to come back a day early, don't rush home at the last minute and then rush off to work.

A 10-minute call to San Francisco doesn't take a lot of dough.

For just $2.44 or less, you could take down these recipes by Long Distance.

We're printing these recipes to make a point: a Long Distance call lets you say so much, for so little.

In a 10-minute phone call to San Francisco, between 5 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. tonight, you could take down the recipes below. And by dialing 1+, the most you pay is $2.44, plus tax.

So enjoy a pleasant visit tonight by Long Distance. Whether you call to get a couple recipes... or just to find out what's cookin'.

1. SOURDOUGH STARTER

1 package active dry yeast
2 1/2 cups warm water
(105° to 115°)

1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
2 tablespoons sugar
4 cups all-purpose flour

a) Stir yeast, water, dry milk and sugar in 2 1/2 quart crock or non-metallic bowl until yeast is dissolved. Stir in flour gradually until a smooth batter forms. Let stand loosely covered in warm place, 3 to 5 days. Stir down batter occasionally. Store loosely covered in refrigerator.

b) Replace exact amount of starter used for each recipe by stirring equal amounts of homogenized milk and flour back into starter. (For example, replace 1 cup starter with 1/2 cup homogenized milk and 1/2 cup flour). Let stand loosely covered until it bubbles, overnight.
Stir down. Each time this process is repeated, the starter becomes more active and develops a more sour flavor. Note: if stored as much as two to three weeks between usings, just pour off the watery layer on top and replace following procedure in (b).

2. SOURDOUGH BREAD STICKS

1 cup instant nonfat dry milk 2 teaspoons salt
1 cup warm water 2 teaspoons sugar
(105° to 115°) 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup Sourdough Starter (see Recipe No. 1) 1/2 cup butter or 2 cups all-purpose flour margarine, melted
3 tablespoons vegetable oil

a) Mix dry milk, water, Sourdough Starter and 2 cups flour in non-metallic bowl, cover loosely. Let stand in warm place until mixture is coarse and bubbly, at least 8 hours.

b) Mix oil, salt, sugar and baking soda into sourdough mixture. Stir in enough of the remaining flour to make dough easy to handle.
Knead dough lightly on well-floured board, about 2 minutes.

c) Roll dough into rectangle, 15 x 10 inches, on well-floured board.
Cut into fifteen 1-inch strips. Roll each strip into even round strand about 14 inches long. Double strand over and twist to form bread stick. Place bread sticks on greased baking sheet, brush with melted butter. Cover with plastic wrap. Let rise in warm place until double, 1 to 1 1/2 hours.

d) Heat oven to 375°. Bake bread sticks until golden brown, 30 to 35 minutes. (Makes 15).

Right now, we're making you a tempting offer on gas grills with twin burners! Independently controlled twin burners never use more gas than you need. For big meals, use both burners.
For smaller meals, save gas and money by using one burner and half the grill. A gas grill adds a new dimension to family meals and entertaining. It eliminates the fuss and bother of cooking outside while it keeps the flavor and the fun. And, because you take cooking heat out of the house and the burden off your air conditioning, you save energy, too.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum Sunday afternoon movie fare continues its bicentennial salute to America with "The Howards of Virginia" scheduled for 3 p.m. Sunday.

The movie will be shown in the second floor lecture room in the main museum building. Admission is free.

Starring Cary Grant, Martha Scott and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, the movie is a rousing adaptation of Elizabeth Page's "Tree of Liberty," a poignant tale of the Howard and the Peyton families who are joined in marriage but become separated by their opposing political views.

The National Board of Review said the movie "is by far the best big picture that has been made of the American Revolution, done with meticulous heed to setting and dress, and once the revolt of the Colonies is started, many a glimpse of important happenings."

The Columbia picture is 117 minutes in length and is rated G.

Jacobs resigns as superintendent

Canyon School Supt. Jerry Jacobs resigned his post Tuesday night.

He was hired Monday as superintendent of the Raymondville Independent School District.

School board members voted Tuesday to accept Jacobs' resignation effective in 30 days or when those projects connected with the sale of $3 million in bonds recently voted by CISD taxpayers are completed to the board's satisfaction.

Jacobs, a sometimes controversial school figure, has been superintendent here since 1967.

Board President Tom Keeling announced Jacobs' resignation at the close of a regular business meeting Tuesday night.

"I have a letter for Mr. Jacobs' resignation," he told other board members, "and I'm sure not happy to see it."

"We don't have to accept it, do we?" responded Keeling.

The board did vote, though, to accept the resignation with the proviso that Jacobs remain in Canyon for 30 days or until all matters relating to the sale of school bonds for which his participation would be necessary are completed. The board plans to seek a bond rating from New York City bond rating agencies later this month. The sale of bonds is set for late August.

"Canyon does have a doggone good school system," Jacobs told The News Tuesday afternoon. "The majority of the people do expect and want a good education. In any system that's good."

In reviewing the highlights of his nearly 10 years in Canyon, Jacobs said many changes have been effected in curriculum. In addition, a new junior high school has been constructed, a new vocational wing has been built for the high school and new vocational curriculum put into use, and the $3 million bond issue has been passed for construction of a new elementary school and additions to the high school.

Jacobs said, though, a great share of the credit for the quality of the Canyon school system must go to the staff and teachers and school board members.

"Nearly everything that happens — and a lot of outsiders don't understand this — originates with the teaching staff," he said.

"Our staff and teachers as a whole are second to none," he said. "One of the real joys has been sitting in a good spot to be able to hire the quality people we have that are dedicated to helping boys and girls.

During his years at Canyon, Jacobs has been center of controversy several times. Most recently, he became the personal target of opponents to passage of a school bond issue (See JACOBS, Page 5)

County tax up 25% ; school tax to rise 25% too

County commissioners voted a 25 per cent tax hike for Randall County residents Tuesday and Canyon School Board members are expected to follow suit next Tuesday.

The surprise county move came Tuesday afternoon in a special called meeting for commissioners to discuss the 1976-77 budget and possible reappraisal of all Randall County land.

School board members Tuesday night reviewed a nearly $4 million budget which they were told would require a tax hike of about 25 per cent to finance. Final action on the budget will come during another special meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday following a public hearing on the document.

County commissioners may wait two weeks before having a public hearing on their second $2 million budget, which includes a $243,000 appropriation to hire an outside firm to revalue all county property.

The effect of the county tax hike, which follows by one year a 30 per cent hike in taxes for county residents, will be to raise the taxes on a typical farm property by about $25 per year, according to Commissioner Dee Griffin, who recommended the increase.

The effect of the school board's anticipated action will be to hike

the tax on a home placed on the tax roll at $20,000 from $153 under last year's rate to $192 under the rate recommended Tuesday night.

County commissioners voted Monday to hike the tax ratio from 25 per cent to 30 per cent and to hike the special ad valorem tax from five cents per $100 of assessed value to 15 cents per $100. The tax formula which will be used in figuring taxes will be $1.05 per $100 on 30 percent of assessed value.

School board members acted earlier this year to raise the percentage of valuation from 40 per cent to 80 per cent. If figures presented Tuesday night by Supt.

Jerry Jacobs and Business Manager Ronnie Wood are followed, the tax rate for the coming year will be $1.20 per $100 for application to 80 per cent of assessed value. Last year's tax formula was $1.92 on 40 per cent of assessed value.

School board members had anticipated an increase in taxes for the upcoming school year based on several factors which became evident during last year and the spring.

A legislative mandate that the local district pay more of the burden for providing schools, a mandate which cost taxpayers $140,000 more this year than last,

Board views $4 million budget

Canyon School Board members reviewed but took no action Tuesday night on a proposed $4 million budget, the highest in school district history and one which will require a 25 per cent tax increase.

A formal public hearing on the budget proposal, prepared hurriedly and early this year to expedite the sale of $3 million in bonds recently authorized by

Canyon voters, will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the school administration building.

At that time, board members will also accept the budget and set a tax rate for next year.

The rate is expected to be $1.20 per $100 of valuation on 80 per cent of value. The rate used last year was $1.92 per $100 on 40 per cent of value.

School Business Manager Ron-

nie Wood presented the budget proposal Tuesday night calling for a $3.68 million expenditure for operating fund accounts and $485,600 in expenditures for debt service.

The budget presented reflects an anticipated surplus of about $35,000, with income to total $3.7 million and $483,000 respectively.

The 1975-76 amended budget

had expenditures totalling $3.57 million in the operating accounts and $302,000 in the interest and sinking fund. Revenues in the current budget were to total $3.53 million in the operating fund and $329,000 in the interest and sinking fund.

The proposed budget calls for $1,335,600 in income from local tax sources, an increase over the current revenue budget of $1,094,600.

Other local revenue sources, including student fees which were ruled unconstitutional recently by the state attorney general, will be down substantially in the 1976-77 budget to $65,300. In the current year's budget, the local revenue sources provided $104,000 in income.

Reappraisal approved

County budget record

Randall County commissioners approved a record $2,367,654 budget Tuesday afternoon, necessitating the 25 to 30 per cent hike in taxes also voted by commissioners.

The budget, with expenditures proposed by Commissioners Dee Griffin and John Fulgenzi primarily, includes $243,900 to hire a reappraisal firm to revalue all property in the county during the next year.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey voted against the new tax rate but abstained from voting on the budget proposal.

The budget approved Tuesday is nearly $100,000 higher than a budget eyed recently which called for a $341,000 deficit.

The tax hike approved Tuesday erased the deficit.

Griffin told other commissioners he and Fulgenzi had spent seven hours Monday going over the budget requests of various county departments.

They presented expenditure proposals for each office and their figures were accepted by Commissioner Jim Fletcher in the final vote.

Without the $243,000 for a reappraisal, the expenditures for county office-holders will total $2.1 million.

Griffin said the tax hike and (See COUNTY, Page 5)

Petition circulated

Residents protest postal plans

More than 40 persons living along 5th Avenue west of the courthouse square signed petitions early this week opposing construction of a new post office at a site they believe has been chosen for the facility.

The petitions were mailed Wednesday to the U.S. postmaster general, Congressman Jack Hightower and Sens. John Tower and Lloyd Bentsen. One was also turned over to local Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland.

Jim Palmer of 1208 5th Ave. started the petition drive over the weekend after talking with residents of the 1300 block of 5th Avenue who he said have been approached to sell their property to the government for the postal facility.

Palmer said he has learned the government intends to purchase the block between 4th Avenue and 5th Avenue and between 13th and 14th Streets for the post office.

Surveyors were seen on the block last week and small red flags have been placed around the block.

Palmer said every resident of 5th Avenue to 11th Street signed the petition calling for the government not to build the postal facility at the anticipated location except two or three residents in the block to be directly effected.

He said the petition represents both a protest of the location and a protest against the building of a new postal facility in Canyon during a time when the postal service is in an economic quagmire.

"I don't sanction the idea that they're going to spend the money somewhere so they might as well spend it here," Palmer said.

The petition circulated and sent reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned property owners and/or residents on Fifth Avenue of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas do hereby protest the selection of Block 43, Canyon City of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas, for the site of the construction of

But plans not official

Even though residents of 5th Avenue feel they know where a new postal facility will be built, local Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland reiterated Tuesday he has not yet been told where the post office will be constructed.

"Not one word from the department" is the way Moreland characterized the information he's received on postal service construction plans. Moreland had predicted in early April, though, that (See PLANS, Page 5)

Dozens of Canyon youngsters scrambled for pennies in a penny-find sponsored Saturday afternoon by the Canyon bicentennial committee in Conner Park. First National Bank and West Texas State Bank provided pennies for the hunt.

Whether to win or just to eat a lot of watermelon, these local boys tanked up on the juicy melon during festivities at Conner Park Saturday during the bicentennial celebration.

Two "pool parties" are planned during July by the Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee at Conner Park swimming pool. A double event, the first of the pool parties will be held July 16 from 7:30 until 10 p.m. for all Canyon High School students (including sophomores, juniors and seniors for the fall session). The party will include swimming and dancing with music being provided at pool side for the entertainment. A concession stand will be open during the evening and general admission will be $1 for the evening.

The second pool party for July will cater to Canyon Junior High School students (including those who will be seventh, eighth and ninth grade students this fall). The CJHS pool party will be held July 23 from 7:30 until 10 p.m. at the Conner Park Swimming Pool. Admissions will be $1 and music will be playing at pool side for entertainment and dancing. Concessions with soft drinks will also be available throughout the evening.

Following the two pool parties, the Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee will be meeting in a special discussion centering on the success of the summer projects for high school and junior high students. The group will also discuss possible entertainments for the fall catering to the CHS and CJHS students.

The committee's meeting has been set for 7:30 p.m. on Thursday evening, July 29, at the Canyon News offices with all committee members and other interested individuals encouraged to share their ideas.

The Summer Recreation Ad Hoc Committee was formed during early June to meet current needs of youth for entertainment facilities in the community.

Requiem mass Friday for John Batenhorst

Long-time Umbarger rancher and farmer, John Batenhorst, 86, died late Tuesday evening at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon.

Mr. Batenhorst was born August 28, 1889 at West Point, Neb., and came to Umbarger in 1917 after selling his hardware store interests at Primrose, Neb. He entered the farming and ranching business in the Umbarger area until his retirement in 1962.

All-Stars 1-1 in tournament

Canyon's Babe Ruth All-Star team was to be on the mound at press time Wednesday in a game versus the Top of Texas (a team composed of upper Panhandle all-stars). The results of the game will determine whether the team plays again on Thursday during the Babe Ruth All-Star Tournament at Pampa.

The local all-star team is coached by Randy Whitson, Ray Eller and Raby Ratliff.

Tuesday when the Canyon All-Stars met Eastern Panhandle the final score wound up 20-4 in favor of Canyon. Pitching for the game was Danny Roberts and according to the coaches "everybody was hitting."

Earlier in the tournament the Canyon All-Stars were downed by a 17-8 score on Monday when they met the Panhandle Oakies.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Umbarger, the Knights of Columbus and the Farm Bureau. On November 28, 1911 he was married to the former Mary Knust at Olean, Neb.

Prayer services for the family were held Wednesday evening at Schooler-Gordon Funeral Chapel in Canyon and open prayer services for the friends will be held this evening, July 8, at 8 p.m. in Schooler-Gordon Funeral Chapel, Canyon.

Requiem mass will be conducted at 10 a.m. on Friday at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Umbarger with Rev. James Sonderman, pastor, officiating. Interment will be at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery at Umbarger. Pallbearers will be his grandsons. Local arrangements are being handled by Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

Survivors include his wife, Mary of Umbarger; three sons, Raymond Batenhorst of Canyon, Sylvester Batenhorst and Leonard Batenhorst, both of Umbarger; five daughters, Mrs. Vincent Friemel and Mrs. Dennis Brandt, both of Umbarger, Mrs. E.N. Reinart of Hereford, Mrs. John Vorwald of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Mrs. Werner Henschel of Groove Springs, Mo.; one brother, Henry Batenhorst of Vega; 40 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren.

Industry surveys due scrutiny at meeting

Chamber of Commerce directors and industrial foundation directors are to meet in a special session at 7 p.m. tonight to go over proposals for conducting a review of possible industrial sites here.

Roland Black, manager of the chamber, said eight proposals from various area firms were received by the chamber to pursue a $5,000 study of industrial site possibilities around Canyon.

Tonight's meeting is to focus on a selection of three of the eight for personal interviews. Black said all eight proposals were under the $5,000 ceiling which federal officials had told the chamber it might expect for funding.

The chamber has asked for a federal grant to fund the study of industrial sites.

Black said the formal grant request is ready to be sent to the Economic Development Administration as soon as the interviews are conducted.

The chamber will recommend a firm to accomplish the study, and the EDA will make the final selection.

The study will center on three site possibilities around Canyon and will determine the feasibility of industrial promotion here.

Employment is census survey topic

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the work week of July 19-24. Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Dallas, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 70,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in May the survey indicated that of the 94.6 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 87.7 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 7.3 percent, down from 7.5 percent in April.

Clog dance for TEXAS

A troupe of young dancers from Georgia will bring their authentic mountain clog dances to Texas July 12 for a performance at 7:45 p.m. on the patio area of "TEXAS."

Little General Cloggers and the General Cloggers ranging in age from four to fourteen, will dance the clog and combine it with square dancing and clogging routines.

The troupes, one for younger and one for older youngsters, were organized in 1972 in Kennesaw, Ga., the home of the famous Civil War locomotive, The General. The dancers are official ambassadors for the state of Georgia and are representatives of the Georgia Bicentennial Commission.

Cablevision may be closer

Cablevision for Canyon is perhaps a bit closer, city manager Glenn Metcalf said Monday.

The cable television developer, T.D. Austin, has accomplished a good part of the FCC application, Metcalf said.

As soon as the FCC approves the cable franchise, then Austin has a year in which to install at least 90 percent of the system.

"He's still serious about it," Metcalf said. The Cablevision franchise was granted to Austin last August.

Canyon Days '76 festival parade floats were the highlight of Saturday afternoon along with a special VIP motorcade as Canyon's Citizen of the Year, Carmen Hernandez, and other dignitaries were recognized. In photo above the branding iron for best parade float was accepted by a representative for the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints as Ken Thompson of the Canyon Chamber made the presentation.

Best float awarded

The best float award at the Canyon Days '76 parade on Saturday went to the representatives of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The winning float group received an oversized branding iron for their project among the 60 or so parade entries. In the bike decorating division the winners were Chad Barnes, 7, first place; Shane Mudge, 6, second place; Danny Kershen, 10, third place; Brian Kershen, 9, fourth place; Adam Tunk, 11, and Herbie Griner, 11, tied for fifth place. Awards were based on best decorated and most unusual decorations in the division. An estimated 1,200 were served barbecue and trimmings at the park, according to a Chamber of Commerce spokesman, and it was estimated that about 3,500 persons were on hand to view the late evening fireworks display marking the 200th birthday of America.

also be down for the 1976-77 school year to $2.31 million from current revenue figures of $2.32 million.

Instruction will take the biggest bite of the proposed budget with an allocation of $2.3 million. Instructional administration will total $84,900. Library expenditures will be $96,700. Expenditures for principals is to total $177,500.

Total expenditure estimate for counselors is $108,500. Transportation is expected to cost $182,000 next year and co-curricular activities are allocated $77,600.

General administration is allocated $197,500 while maintenance shows an increase to $424,800.

Wood said he anticipates a 14 per cent increase in electricity bills next year and a 19 per cent increase in natural gas bills.

The budget includes allocations for several special projects for the upcoming year, including new typewriters and equipment for the junior high and high school, new furniture for Rex Reeves Elementary School, and a black-top area for Gene Howe Elementary School.

After brief discussion, Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board the staff would also try to include the funding for an additional counselor at the high school and other equipment in the budget.

In other business Tuesday night, the board took no action on two petitions for de-annexation from the Canyon district.

Amarillo Attorney Robert Templeton presented a revised petition to the board seeking de-annexation of a 360-acre tract of land just north of Estacado Estates in the South Amarillo area.

He had earlier this summer presented a similar petition.

He told the board $72,000 had been put into a special escrow account for transmission to the district upon completion of the de-annexation procedure.

The board took no action on the petition at the advice of Jacobs who quoted CISD Bond Expert Bob Davis, who he said advised against any action on a petition until after $3 million in bonds are sold in late August.

The board, for the same reason, delayed any action on a petition seeking de-annexation of a 640-acre tract known as Sleepy Hollow in South Amarillo.

The board did decide, though, to set a meeting as soon as possible with members of the Randall County Board of School Trustees to discuss the upcoming de-annexation petition efforts.

The board accepted the resignation of Alton Fields, who had been an assistant football coach at the high school. Fields will be head coach at Ralls.

The resignation of Richard Bales, who had been junior high band director, was also accepted. Bales will go to Borger.

Taxes. . .

caused some of the increase. The loss of certain student fees, charged in the past to students for workbooks and laboratory equipment, cost the taxpayers another about $25,000.

In addition, the passage of a $3 million bond issue in May to finance construction of a new elementary school and remodeling and additions at Canyon High School cost the taxpayers an increase in payments on the district's bonded indebtedness of about 10 per cent.

Inflation also took its toll on the budget for the upcoming year, according to Wood.

Griffin told fellow county commissioners Tuesday afternoon the 25 per cent tax hike would provide funds enough to adequately finance county government for the next year, including the reappraisal effort.

Commissioners stressed the tax hike would be for a one-year period only, until the reappraisal is completed by an outside firm and the tax formula can be reassessed in view of new evaluations of property.

Petition. . .

a new post office facility or any portion thereof, which effects our property and residences located on any portion of Fifth Avenue of the City of Canyon, Randall County, Texas.

"We are of the opinion that the location of such postal facility will inevitably create a depreciation in value of our property to an extensive degree. We are also of the opinion that it is inevitable, if such postal facility is located on any portion of Fifth Avenue . . . it will require that Fifth Avenue be widened to accommodate increase in traffic brought about by such construction of a postal facility."

"In the event a widening of Fifth Avenue comes about, such action will further decrease the value and intrinsic beauty of Fifth Avenue which has been cited as one of the most beautiful streets within the City of Canyon. . . ."

"At this time during our Bicentennial Year, much has been recorded of the historical value and beauty of many of the homes located on Fifth Avenue. The widening of Fifth Avenue and the removal of valuable trees is an affront not only to the preservation of such local and American history, but also can create an apathetic view-point toward the preservation of our heritage among our present and forthcoming generations. . . ."

Palmer also turned a copy of the petition over to City Manager Glen Metcalf for review by city commissioners at their next meeting.

Postal authorities have been seeking a site in Canyon for construction of a new facility since early April.

County. . .

larger budget are required due to growth in the county, particularly in South Amarillo.

But, all commissioners joined in a general statement of abhorrence for new taxes.

They hoped, though, a reappraisal by an outside firm would place property on the tax rolls at a true 100 per cent value allowing a tax decrease next year.

Griffin told commissioners they must face the reality that the county is operating in a metropolitan environment and will be called on increasingly in the future to participate in financing urban-oriented projects.

"It's a hard pill and none of us want to swallow it but it's there," Griffin said.

On the vote to increase taxes 10 cents on special ad valorem taxes and from 25 per cent to 30 per cent on ratio of assessment, Paul Lindsey voted no.

"I'm opposed to it, but this is our only salvation," Fletcher told Lindsey. "We can't continue our deficit budget."

Lindsey told fellow commissioners his negative vote was not against the principle of hiking taxes to meet the budget but a protest against including the $243,000 allocation for a reappraisal in the budget.

Lindsey had, in a meeting last week, termed outside reappraisals as "one of the biggest rip-offs" of the taxpayers in the state.

Other commissioners agreed an in-house reappraisal effort would not work. They noted that the possibility of hiring qualified appraisers to perform a reappraisal was virtually nil.

"I wouldn't have voted for it if it hadn't been a necessity," Griffin said.

Commissioners instructed Tax Assessor-Collector Mrs. Audrey Bruse to contact J. W. McMorris and Associates of Hereford, the low bidder for a reappraisal, for a meeting about the reappraisal. McMorris had bid $219,000 for the job.

Allocations established in the budget approved Tuesday for various offices and functions are as follows:

*Tax assessor-collector — $285,000 for next year; $263,600 for current year.

*County judge — $21,992 for next year; $24,041 for current year.

which initially totaled $6 million and called for construction of a new high school and elementary school.

Jacobs came to the Canyon district as superintendent in 1967 after spending five years as superintendent at Edna. Prior to that he was superintendent at LeFors for six years and superintendent at Channing four years.

During the early '50s, he was principal of the high school and coach at Texline for three years.

During the 1948-49 school year, he was a math teacher and assistant coach at Canyon High School.

A native of Spearman, Jacobs received his bachelor's and master's degrees from West Texas State University in 1948 and 1951 respectively.

He had served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

School board members went into executive session following the close of regular business Tuesday night to consider guidelines to follow in the selection and hiring of a replacement for Jacobs.

Dr. James Davis, head, WTSU Accounting Department; Norman Harrell, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. partner in charge of WTSU relations; and C. James Mans, also a PMM partner.

Firm gives to university

The Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. Foundation has presented $2,550 to the West Texas State University Accounting Department.

The donation is the result of a direct foundation gift, as well as the foundation's matching of employee contributions.

The funds will go to create a computer room and purchase a terminal for use by accounting students. The room will be dedicated to WTSU alumni employed by the certified public accountant firm.

City clerk post filled here

Kevin P. Evans began work this week as administrative assistant to city manager Glen Metcalf.

Originally from Hereford, Evans has attended West Texas State University since 1973, majoring in public administration. He is due to graduate in December.

One of Evans' first projects, Metcalf said, will be to prepare the city's application for matching funds for park development.

Plans. . .

finding a suitable site for location of a new post office here would be a problem.

Postal officials announced they were seeking a site in late March.

They want nearly 60,000 square feet in the downtown area.

Several bids for sites were turned into postal officials in mid-April.

Surveyors have been seen at a possible site, termed the real site by protestors along 5th Avenue, which is bordered on the north by 4th Avenue, on the south by 5th Avenue, on the east by 14th Street and on the west by 13th Street. Red flags now border the block, also.

... and the next and the next and the next.

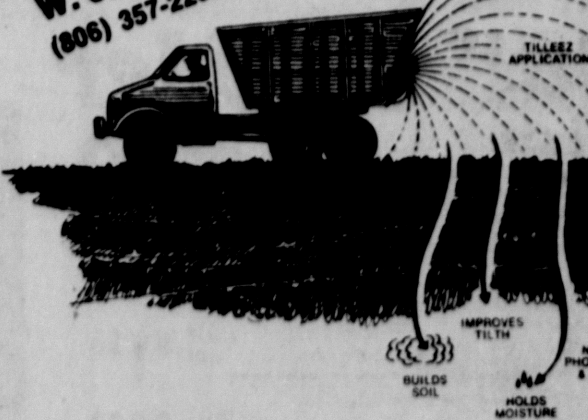

Unlike raw manure, Tilleez nutrients are available for plant uptake for this year's crop. And, it builds the soil and moisture-retaining capacity for future crops.

Tilleez benefits your soil and gives it improved tilth. The bacterial mass developed in the Tilleez process makes use of the locked-up nutrients, already in your soil, by converting them to readily usable plant food.

And, with all of these advantages, you still get a good supply of nitrogen . . . usable process of aerobic bacterial digestion that converts raw manure into a valuable soil conditioner and fertilizer. In the big million-dollar plant at Summerfield, aerobic microorganisms create the heat that kills weed seeds and changes the manure into a form that makes its natural nutrients readily available to plants.

Tilleez is a product of the BioCon Division of Searle Agriculture.

Folks back from vacations

BY JO FULKERSON
PAT REED is home from her trip to Boston, Mass. and points east. I am sorry to report that she was ill there and had to come home early because of that illness. She made it home after a few disappointing delays with the airlines, and has been feeling poorly since being at home for a few days.

She reported that her daughter, Sandra Pellerin, graduated with highest honors from North Eastern College in Boston, and is now a radiologist technician. She worked at New England Memorial for her on-the-job training. That was in Stoneham, Mass.

Pat planned this visit as a surprise present for Sandra's graduation, and the family was so pleased. She said while she was there, the family took her to the dog races in Revere, Mass. and although she didn't get rich, they had lots of fun.

KIM AND MIKE Emerson are also home from their week

long visit to Vallecito Lake near Durango, Colo. In addition to it being wonderfully cool, the fish were really biting.

Mike caught a 36 inch pike. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cooper, Kim's mother and dad, met them there. She said they had a wonderful time.

WE WILL MISS Kenny Hughes, who has this week

moved to Kress to be nearer his work.

THE ROYCE McKEE family, and the V.M. McKee's from Lubbock, went to Greenbelt Lake recently for the day.

The outing was nice, but when the wind blew their tent down, they decided it was time to come on home.

Doris' mother, Mrs. Weaver, will be visiting with the McKee's for a while. By the way, Doris was sporting a beautiful bracelet watch on her wrist when she was in the office recently. It was a gift for extraordinary work and sales of Sara Coventry Jewelry, for which Doris is a demonstrator. Isn't it true, Doris, the harder we work, the "luckier" we get?

HERE FOR A two week visit at Sandra and Mike Edmiston's house are nieces Julie and Dana Gibbs of Fort Worth. These girls are the daughters of Sandra's sister, Lois Gibbs.

WE SINCERELY REGRET the tragic death of Miss Sherry Cobb, a Siesta Park resident. She was drowned during a fishing trip to Greenbelt last weekend. We extend heartfelt sympathy to her roommate, Miss Kayleen Davis, and to Miss

Cobb's family.

THE OAKLEY CHILDREN, daughters of Gene and Diana Oakley, 257 La Fiesta, are away to Denver City to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jones, for two weeks. Goodness knows parents love their children, but Diana says she is sort of having a vacation too, while they are away.

THE OTHER DAY when the sun was shining brightly, the wind was calm, and the temperature was at its very best — in other words a perfect spring day — a young man about 5 years old came into the office and asked me why I was in the office working. I told him that I thought I ought to be here, and he told me in no uncertain terms that there were lots of "funner things to do."

Well, I thought about that expression when I learned that Sharon Shipley had to return to the hospital for another brief stay, and that Diane Hoffman was also going to have to go in. Sharon and Diane, there are funner things to do, but hope you both are feeling better soon. We are glad to report that Faye Risner is home and recuperating.

NEWCOMERS TO THE park included Max and Janice Turner, 127 Siesta Lane; Shawn Poland and Ken Perkins, 208 La Fiesta; Thomas and Julie Bowen at 252 La Fiesta; Mrs. Belinda

Leyba and family at 108 Siesta Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Rhodes, 109 Loma Linda; and Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Owens, 217 La Fiesta. Welcome.

REX AND ALYCE Holbert have recently been away to help celebrate a nephew's wedding.

RUBY HUDDLESTON SAYS the Golf Tournament at Silsby was held June 17 through June 20, and was a huge success. She visited with Jack and Vera, Joe and Vickie, the Huddleston's at Lake Jackson, and had a ball. The only thing that marred her visit there was the death of a long-time family pet, Lucky. She also visited with relatives in Baytown, namely the Caseys, Whights and the Huddlestons. They really went all out for her, she said, and she had to make herself leave. One of her nieces has a cabin at Lake Weatherford, and while there, the whole crowd were catching fish so fast, Ruby got so excited she almost fell off the pier. Fun, fun, fun.

Granddaughter, Jamie Huddleston came home with Ruby, for a three-week visit. Hope that they have a good time. We missed Ruby and are glad she's home safely. . . .

CLARICE HEGLIN IS

celebrating a birthday July 1. Ruby Huddleston says she's not sure which birthday it is. She thinks Clarice is 39 and holding. Happy birthday. . . .
I CALLED PEGGY Gore who told me she and Clarice in company with Earlene Williams (Peggy's sister), made a trip to California recently to visit with another sister, Mattie Carlson who lives in San Bernardino. Peggy's niece took them to Las Vegas, Nev., which was fun.
Clarice went on to Sacramento to visit with a granddaughter, Dianna Heglin. Sounded like their trip was fun. Peggy and Clarice are both live wires, so I know there was not a dull moment from start to finish. . . .

KIRA BURGAN, DAUGHTER of Ira and Kathy Burgan, celebrated her ninth birthday recently and several friends attended a swimming party in her honor. . . .
MR. AND MRS. Clyde Turner (known to family members as Papa and Crabby Grandma), old family friends from Tucson, Arizona, and their grandson, Marty Dains, surprised and pleased us the past weekend by visiting us on their way from Post, Texas (where Mr. Turner's mother lives) to parts of Oklahoma and other parts unknown.
They will be touring about a month, stopping as it pleases them, and have no definite

itinerary. . . .
NEW SOLDIER, MARK McQueary, is now stationed in Fort Jackson, South Carolina.
He writes his parents, Art and Jean, that he hasn't experienced any of the fun parts to service yet, but is optimistic. . . .
JERRY AND ANNA Stiekrod report that their family, especially the kids, enjoy almost daily swims in the pool. They have the tans to prove it. . . .
REMEMBER EVERYONE, I need your news. Call me at 355-0601, and try again if you don't catch me the first try. Have a happy tomorrow. . . .

U.S. history in museum films

Scenes from America's history will come alive at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum's Sunday afternoon movies July 18 and 25.
On July 18 beginning at 3 p.m., five short films will be shown in the second floor lecture room in the main museum building.
Opening the series will be "The Great Rights," an animated film showing what would happen if the Bill of Rights disappeared from American life. Following this will be two historical accounts, "Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" and "Washington Cross-

sing the Delaware."
Symbols of American independence will be looked at in "The Statue of Liberty" and "Old Glory."
On July 25, the movie fare will be "Proud Rebel," starring Alan Ladd and Olivia de Havilland.
The movie is a tale about the devotion between a father and son during the post Civil War days in the Midwest. The story tells of a "proud rebel" who travels north seeking medical aid for his son who has been mute since seeing his mother die in the battle of Atlanta.
Showtimes for "Proud Rebel" will be 2:30 p.m. and 4:10 p.m. in the second floor lecture room. Admission is free.
TOPS plan party Friday
A fun night for 12 area TOPS clubs will be held Friday at 7:45 p.m. at the community center. Canyon's morning TOPS will be hostesses for the clubs from Amarillo, Hereford, Meadall and Canyon.

Plans for early exams foiled by University officials

WTSU's first summer session, which began on a holiday, ended on another holiday, despite some grumbling from students and faculty.

Registration was held on Memorial Day and finals fell on July 5, the legal Monday Fourth of July holiday for state and federal employees and many other workers.

Last week, students tried to petition the university administration to re-schedule the final exams for July 2, the Friday before the holiday weekend.

The attempt failed and Ray A. Malzahn, vice president for academic affairs, explained why in a July 1 faculty bulletin:

Questions of all kinds have been asked about our summer calendar for 1976 — why did we register on May 31; why are finals scheduled for July 5? The facts of the matter are these: the Common Calendar adopted by the Coordinating Board mandated the beginning of the summer session no later than May 31, 1976. The Common Calendar regulations also state "each of the two summer terms shall include no less than 5 1/2 calendar weeks including registration, instruction, and final examinations." Conflicts with the public school teachers' schedules prevent us from starting sooner than May 31 or ending after August 13 — a span of 11 weeks. State law prohibits taking a day off on a Friday or Monday if a holiday falls on the adjacent Saturday or Sunday. University regulations based on accreditation standards require a final at the end of the term. Further, the faculty need some time to grade finals and turn in grades and the Registrar's Office needs some time to complete the term and prepare for the second.

All of these facts make it necessary that we start with Registration on May 31, end the 1st Term and begin the 2nd Term the week of July 4, have finals on July 5, and end the session by August 13.

We regret the inconvenience this summer schedule has caused students, faculty and staff alike, but we see no workable alternative.

— Ray A. Malzahn

Some professors planned to circumvent the Monday exam requirement by giving two-part exams with the major portion to be given Friday or by giving a 'late mid-term' exam Friday and an insignificant final on Monday.

Bride's colors used for event

Apricot and gold decorated the serving table to carry out the chosen color scheme of Miss Karen Leverett, bride-elect of Kent Hodges, at a miscellaneous bridal shower June 26 in the home of Mrs. Bernard Warren.

The morning shower was attended by approximately 30 friends of the couple as Mrs. William Deane presided at the guest register.

An orderly and linen cloth covered the serving table with a centerpiece arrangement of apricot and gold. The bride and groom's wedding gifts were placed on the table. The bride's colors were used for the event.

A fruit plate and miniature sweet rolls were served with Carla Gray attending to the punch service.

The couple is planning to marry at First Baptist Church of Canyon on July 17.

Co-hostesses assisting Mrs. Warren were Mrs. Crews Henry, Mrs. Michael Auls and Mrs. W.L. Powell of Amarillo.

Ft. Elliott display up

An exhibit on Fort Elliott, the Texas Panhandle's first permanent fort in existence from 1875 to 1890, is on display in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum's main building.

Focal point of the exhibit is the fort's 28 by 14 foot United States garrison flag suspended from the front room ceiling.

Fort Elliott was established near Mobetie to complete the ring of forts around the Indian reservations in Oklahoma. The soldiers' duties were to patrol the border between Texas and the Indian territory to prevent the Indians from slipping out to raid or hunt.

The museum's information records that "post life was seldom exciting unless Indians had escaped from their reservation."

"Recreation consisted of reading and attending lectures on such subjects as 'first help in hemorrhages, drowning, poisoning by snake bites, fractures and dislocations,'" the descriptions continue.

The soldiers also pursued cattle rustlers and horse thieves, and were involved in road building and telegraph installation.

Other parts of the exhibit include guns, swords, uniforms and a typical bedroom used by the soldiers.

The exhibit will be up until September.

Supper-dance set Saturday

A calf fry and dance is set for Saturday evening, July 10, at the ATO fraternity lodge on Hix Drive, east of the city.

The project is being sponsored by Canyon's Young Citizens with only advance tickets being sold to those a minimum of 18 years old. Tickets may be purchased through JD's Playhouse in Canyon or by calling 655-3891 or 655-3330.

Tickets are selling for a $6 donation toward the CYC scholarship account to benefit Canyon High School students planning to pursue their education at West Texas State University.

Calf fries will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m. and the dance will be following at 9 p.m.

Mass, cake, supper mark celebration

By REBA RAEF
ST. MARY'S BICENTENNIAL celebration began with a 5 p.m. Mass on July 4th in St. Mary's Church. The Mass was celebrated by Father James Sonderman. Special music was provided by St. Mary's Youth choir and orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Ramackers.

As the United States and the church flags were brought to the altar, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung by the congregation.

At the covered dish supper held in the parish hall, Father James Sonderman, our new pastor, was welcomed and given a standing ovation.

A 4-tiered bicentennial cake, decorated in red, white and blue, complete with 200 red, white and blue candles, was the center of attraction, as the congregation sang "Happy Birthday, America."

The small children blew out the candles and the cake was cut and served by Mesdames Ed Wieck, Ray Gerber, John Grabber, A.H. Lindemann, Vincent Ramackers, Lee Haschke and the Misses Gertrude Friemel and Joletta Adams.

We're printing these recipes to make a point: a Long Distance call lets you say so much, for so little.

In a 10-minute phone call to San Francisco, between 5 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. tonight, you could take down the recipes below. And by dialing 1+, the most you pay is $2.44, plus tax.

So enjoy a pleasant visit tonight by Long Distance. Whether you call to get a couple recipes... or just to find out what's cookin'.

1. SOURDOUGH STARTER

1 package active dry yeast
2 1/2 cups warm water
(105° to 115°)

1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
2 tablespoons sugar
4 cups all-purpose flour

a) Stir yeast, water, dry milk and sugar in 2 1/2 quart crock or non-metallic bowl until yeast is dissolved. Stir in flour gradually until a smooth batter forms. Let stand loosely covered in warm place, 3 to 5 days. Stir down batter occasionally. Store loosely covered in refrigerator.

b) Replace exact amount of starter used for each recipe by stirring equal amounts of homogenized milk and flour back into starter. (For example, replace 1 cup starter with 1/2 cup homogenized milk and 1/2 cup flour). Let stand loosely covered until it bubbles, overnight. Stir down. Each time this process is repeated, the starter becomes more active and develops a more sour flavor. Note: if stored as much as two to three weeks between usings, just pour off the watery layer on top and replace following procedure in (b).

2. SOURDOUGH BREAD STICKS

1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
1 cup warm water
(105° to 115°)
1 cup Sourdough Starter
(see Recipe No. 1)
2 cups all-purpose flour
3 tablespoons vegetable oil

2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 to 1 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted

a) Mix dry milk, water, Sourdough Starter and 2 cups flour in non-metallic bowl, cover loosely. Let stand in warm place until mixture is coarse and bubbly, at least 8 hours.

b) Mix oil, salt, sugar and baking soda into sourdough mixture. Stir in enough of the remaining flour to make dough easy to handle. Knead dough lightly on well-floured board, about 2 minutes.

c) Roll dough into rectangle, 15 x 10 inches, on well-floured board. Cut into fifteen 1-inch strips. Roll each strip into even round strand about 14 inches long. Double strand over and twist to form bread stick. Place bread sticks on greased baking sheet, brush with melted butter. Cover with plastic wrap. Let rise in warm place until double, 1 to 1 1/2 hours.

d) Heat oven to 375°. Bake bread sticks until golden brown, 30 to 35 minutes. (Makes 15).

A tempting offer on a gas grill.

Right now, we're making you a tempting offer on gas grills with twin burners! Independently controlled twin burners never use more gas than you need. For big meals, use both burners. For smaller meals, save gas and money by using one burner and half the grill. A gas grill adds a new dimension to family meals and entertaining. It eliminates the fuss and bother of cooking outside while it keeps the flavor and the fun. And, because you take cooking heat out of the house and the burden off your air conditioning, you save energy, too.

Buy one of these grills before August 1, 1976, and save.
